

Four Physical Sciences students awarded the 2024 UCI Chancellor's Award of Distinction

Monday, May 13, 2024

The Chancellor's Award of Distinction recognizes an exceptional group of graduating students who exhibit a commitment to cutting-edge research, leadership, or service to UC Irvine. The award recognizes UC Irvine's most outstanding undergraduates.

Four School of Physical Sciences students were selected as 2024 Chancellor's Award of Distinction:

Nathan Goodwin Chen

School of Physical Sciences

Alicia Grace Chuang

Donald Bren School of Information & Computer Sciences

School of Physical Sciences

Justin Huy Lee

School of Biological Sciences

School of Physical Sciences

Ben Rose

School of Biological Sciences

School of Physical Sciences

Congratulations to all recipients of the 2024 Chancellor's Award of Distinction.

Read more about the award here.

UCI Alumni

News Briefs

View PDF