COMMENTS:

Student Notice: A study plan is not a contract with Physical Sciences and is used for informational purposes only. Academic requirements, including prerequisites and/or course offerings, may change after submission of this study plan. It is the student's responsibility to follow their study plan and to confirm with their advisor on a regular basis any questions about their progress towards degree completion. Physical Sciences is not held responsible for any issues stemming from an accepted study plan. Failure to follow a study plan could result in either 1) a request for a new study plan or 2) inability to graduate.
